Departure of Steamers.

FOR PORT WASHINGTON, &C.

The Steamer Cleveland leaves Johnson & Olmsted's Dock every morning (Sundays excepted), at 3 o'clock in the morning, for Port Washington, Sheboygan, Manitowoc and Two Rivers.

FOR CHICAGO, &C.

The steamer Traveller will leave Johnson & Olmsted's Dock every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening, at 9 o'clock, for Chicago and Intermediate ports.

FOR COLLINGWOOD AND THE EAST.

The Collingwood Line of screw steamers leave—one every day, from Dousman's dock, foot of East Water st., connecting at Collingwood with cars from the East.

FOR BUFFALO.

Screw steamers, with good accommodations for passengers, leave the different transportation docks every day for Buffalo.

The Grain Trade.

Receipts of wheat yesterday, including flour, amounted to better than ninety-three thousand bushels, namely: 1,787 bbls. flour and 84,078 bus. wheat. This is the largest quantity of wheat ever before received here in one day, by nearly ten thousand bushels. Shipments were not correspondingly large, being in the aggregate but a trifle over sixty-three thousand bushels. According to our telegraphic reports, the New York wheat market was rather unsettled, views of operators some distance apart. Milwaukee club sold at $1,12a1,14 to fill a pressing engagement. Shippers did not generally offer more than $1,12, and $1,10 for Chicago spring.—Flour 10a15c lower. In Buffalo, under the influence of a scarcity some brands, went up 20a25c.

A Card from Mr. Giddings.

The Slavery propagandists at the South and their Doughface adherents at the North, are doing their best to manufacture a little political capital out of the "Harper's Ferry Insurrection." The idea of nineteen men invading the State of Virginia, seizing and holding a United States Armory, and throwing two "Sovereign States" into convulsions of fright, is so ridiculous, that the Sham Democratic organs are now hard at work to prove that the "outbreak" was the result of a wide-spread "conspiracy" throughout the North. Mr. J. R. GIDDINGS, the veteran M. C. from Northern Ohio, who is one of the suspected "conspirators," thus answers the charge:

While coming to this city on Saturday, I first read a telegraphic despatch from Washington, saying "that Mr. Brown, (the prisoner captured at Harper's Ferry,) refused in the presence of Senator Mason and Messrs. Farrell and Vallandigham, to answer the question whether he had consulted Mr. Giddings about the Virginia eruption?"

It is evident that the object of these gentlemen was not to obtain facts on which to predicate a charge of crime, or of any immoral or dishonorable act. Had such been their object, they would not have published what was not said; but they proclaim their suspicion, and by such innuendos and insinuations seek to injure the character of one who was not present.

I do not feel called on to reply to such an attempt to cast reproach on myself. I say to these questions gentlemen, I am your peer. I have served my country long and I hope as honestly as either of you; and I know and the country knows, that any question you may propound to me touching the government, its past or present position, will be frankly, promptly and fully answered, to the extent of my knowledge and belief. I pronounce this attempt to assail me dishonorable, unworthy of your positions, unworthy of honorable men.

But you must not expect to escape the responsibility of your own conduct by thus assailing one who has for years cautioned you of the results that must follow the efforts of yourselves and party to extend slavery, and your determined purpose to involve the people of the Free States in the disgrace and crime of supporting an institution which all honest and independent men in those States repudiate. No man of our nation has known more than one of you to produce the results which have recently attracted the attention of the people. They are immediate and unmistakable effects of the efforts, of yourselves and party to establish slavery in Kansas.—Murderers there were awarded by Executive appointments to office; Brown's sons were the victims of that despotism which your party exerted in favor of an institution which the people abhorred.

These facts do not rest on suspicion nor on the refusal of a victim to answer any question. They rest upon the records, and the history of the government itself. No evasion nor tergiversation can change the enduring truths to which I refer. And you would better subserve the public good by exerting your influence and occupying your time in correcting the evils you and your party have brought upon the country, than by vain efforts to involve others in the crimes which you and your associates have committed.

To the public I will say that Brown never consulted me in regard to his Virginia expedition or any other expedition or matter whatever. J. R. GIDDINGS.

Girard House, Philada., Oct. 24, '59.

SEWARD IMPLICATED IN THE HARPER'S FERRY RIOT.—A letter of one of the parties engaged in the Harper's Ferry insurrection records an interview that he had with Senator Seward, to whom he detailed the plans of the insurgents. Instead of making public the intelligence, and handing the culprits over to justice, he expressed his regrets that he had been told, and started for Europe so as to be absent at the time of the anticipated outbreak.—National, of yesterday.

There is not the slightest evidence to show that Senator SEWARD was "implicated in the Harper's Ferry Riot." The "letter" referred to speaks of a conversation with Senator SEWARD in May, 1858—some eighteen months ago—and the veracious National states that thereupon Senator SEWARD "started for Europe, so as to be absent at the time of the anticipated outbreak." Senator SEWARD sailed for Europe more than a year after this reported "conversation;" and there is no man in the United States, South or North, who is less chargeable with the blame of this "outbreak" than the distinguished Senator from New York.

THE DISCUSSION last Wednesday evening between Ex-Senator Bean and S. D., alias "Pump" Carpenter, called out the largest crowd that has convened for political purposes the present year, and we think the Republican cause could not have been better served than it was by both speakers, the one by his able and gentlemanly defence of the principles and policy of the Republican party, and the other by his gross personalities, vulgar attempts at wit and general buffoonery, so strikingly in contrast with his opponent.—Berlin Courant, Oct. 27.

It is so everywhere, in the political discussions and in the press. Our opponents rely upon abuse and misrepresentation, to serve their cause. The Republican speakers and papers appeal to reason, not prejudice; and treat the candidates of the Sham Democracy with courtesy and fairness. We have an undoubting conviction that this fair play will prosper.

A SINGULAR ROCK is described by a writer in the Iowa County Advocate. It is in the town of Wyoming, is about one hundred feet in diameter at the base, and perhaps from six to ten at the top, is almost round, and three hundred feet above the Wisconsin.

The Slaughter of Senator Broderick.

The following letter is written by a resident of California who knew Broderick, and who loved him even as "Jonathan loved David." He furnishes some developments about the Terry pistols, not before in print, which render this duel as infamously unfair as if Terry had entered Broderick's chamber and stabbed him to the heart. It is literally a cold and cruel murder, but "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church," for there are times and occasions in the history of every nation, when the perpetration of some infamous wrong is necessary to wake up men to that energy necessary to regenerate the politics of a country.

Correspondence of the Daily Wisconsin.

PLACERVILLE, Cal., Sept. 18, '59.

DEAR SIR:—At the time I write, there exists throughout this State a feeling of intense excitement, coupled with universal mourning. On Monday last, Hon. D. C. Broderick, our U. S. Senator, was slain in a duel by David S. Terry, one of the Judges of our Supreme Court. You will see the particulars stated in the papers which I send you.

Mr. Broderick was a self-made man. He came to this State while not yet thirty years of age, and during his residence here of about ten years, secured to himself wealth and the highest political honors. Honesty, courage, perseverance, and an unswerving attachment to principle and friends, were his prominent characteristics. No man ever had more devoted friends than he. Hundreds in this State would have died for him. Ever since he came to this State, he has been the implacable foe of the pseudo-chivalry and slavery extensionists. In his place in the Senate he defeated more than one dishonest scheme for plundering the public treasury. He stood as the prominent obstacle in the way of this State becoming totally subservient to the most ultra and offensive slavery propagandism.

In this State, all such men are marked for slaughter. Men of his sentiments, when they become too powerful, have been murdered from time to time in this State. Gilbert was shot by Denver, (late of Kansas) with a rifle; Dr. Dickson was killed by one Phil. Thomas; J. W. Ferguson was slain, one year ago, by one Geo. Penn Johnson; and now Broderick is killed by Terry. Other instances might be mentioned, but all who have fallen have been Broderick's friends. It is true that these murders have been committed on the so-called "field of honor;" but what chance do honest men stand with ruffians, who make duelling a business? The advantages which may be taken in a duel are as great as any in a horse race, or in a game of faro.—With these tricks the chivalry ruffians are familiar; and they always manage to jockey the Northern man out of his life.

Mr. Broderick was jockeyed out of his life in the most shameful manner. Terry had the choice of weapons, and chose his own pistols, which were very peculiar in their make, and which Broderick had never before seen. Even worse than this—the pistols were hair trigger, and one was so set that a puff of wind was sufficient for its discharge; the other was properly fixed for use. Upon the latter Terry had his private mark, so that he could make no mistake in the selection. Yet this assassin of course claims to be the soul of honor!—as a chivalry paper says: "a refined and perfect gentleman."

The indignation among the people is so great that the assassin has not dared to face the public, but has fled for the East by the overland route. The Border Ruffians in the South of Kansas will soon receive a valuable accession in the person of our late Chief Justice, David S. Terry.—Wisconsin.

Pierce and the Charleston Nomination.

A Concord (New Hampshire) correspondent of the Boston Traveler, furnishes the following:

"In this State, among the wire-pullers, scarcely a doubt is entertained of ex-President Pierce's ultimate success at Charleston. He will leave the country in about four weeks, having completed all his plans for future operations. His leading friends have been busy ever since Mr. Buchanan's nomination at Cincinnati, fully resolved on his re-nomination. Their apparent friendship for Douglas was only an excuse for turning the cold shoulder to the Administration. Mr. Douglas and his friends will ultimately receive their most damaging blows from the friends of the ex-President, while the latter, and his confidential friends, will aver that he is not a candidate for the office in question. This is an important item in his plans, and the game was so successful in 1852 that too much confidence is given to it now. He is to have no votes until Douglas, Wise, Hunter, Guthrie, Breckenridge, and all other leading candidates shall have been used up, and then a sudden rally is to be made for the ex-President, with a united South leading off in his support, to be backed instantly by all his friends from the free States, who have been secretly secured as delegates. Mr. Forney will be active for Pierce, as will Gen. C. H. Peaselee, Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, Caleb Cushing, Sidney Webster, and Col. George, of Concord. Gen. Pierce will pass the winter at Bermuda rather than at Madeira, as he can better communicate from the former than the latter place with his friends at Washington and elsewhere during the winter, and in case of his nomination, he will return to this country in May next, landing at Charleston.

A SCENE IN COURT WITHOUT "PRECEDENT OR AUTHORITY."—Night before last, while the case of the State versus Crane, for burning the haystacks, was in progress, Mr. Ketchingman was on the stand, and was one of the main witnesses for the prosecution. During the examination of this witness, he was repeatedly interrupted with insulting remarks and taunts, alluding to previous matters in the life of the witness, by Crane, the defendant. The like was never seen in this latitude from the prisoner's box; and showed a disposition and malice that even the place and officers of justice had no influence to repress or overawe. After the witness had left the stand and was going by the box of the prisoner, he jumped like a tiger from his lair, and pounced upon the witness and threw him down over a seat, and kicked him repeatedly in the abdomen, until he was very severely hurt, and had no power to help himself. This was all done so quickly, that no relief could be rendered. As soon as possible, however, the prisoner was seized, handcuffed and gagged, and in this way the other witnesses were examined. There probably is not a more desperate villain, or abandoned ruffian in the State. Before he was arrested for burning his neighbor's stacks, he beat his wife almost to death with a pitchfork, and he threatens to inflict vengeance on all who have assisted in having him punished when he comes out of State Prison. We hope the Court will recommend a long visit to Waupun.—Racine Journal, 28th.

DISTRESSING CASE OF HYDROPHOBIA.—The Racine Journal of the 28th chronicles a most distressing case of human rabies:

"The subject of this notice, was a little boy about twelve years old, who was bitten on the hand a few weeks ago, by a strange dog which came towards him. The wound soon healed and nothing was thought of it. A few days since the little fellow complained of being unwell at the breakfast table, and could not eat. On being requested by his father to get some water, he was thrown into a paroxysm of rage and pain and commenced snapping and foaming at the mouth. Medical aid was called, but without avail. Between the paroxysms which came upon him, he was perfectly rational and knew that he must die. At these intervals he talked of his departure, and gave away to his brothers and sisters the little articles of treasure which he had saved and called his own."

HONEY STOLEN.—A fine hive of honey, weighing from seventy-five to a hundred pounds, was stolen from the premises of Mr. H. H. Howlett last Thursday night about 12 o'clock. The rascals, for there were probably two, came with a light buggy, and deliberately lifted all the hives, five in number, to ascertain their weight, and then made off the heaviest.—Baraboo Republic.

MR. B. EVERETT SMITH has issued the prospectus of a new weekly journal, to be called The Spirit of the American Press. It will aim to give the leading articles of the principal daily, weekly, and religious papers of the whole country, with occasional notes and comments.

ITEMS IN BRIEF.—MCGREW Brothers send us a premium broom, made by F. L. CURTIS, Rocky Run. It is a very fine specimen of handiwork. If our readers wish to know where it GREW, let them enquire at the corner of Spring and West Water streets.——A correspondent asks the Ledger what three books he should choose, when he is about to be imprisoned for life, and supposing he had the choice of three, and the Editor sagely replies: "The Bible, Shakspeare and Webster's Unabridged."——BRICK POMEROY came to town this week, wrote one item about Mrs. CROLY and left.——The Spring street Congregational Church have changed their afternoon service to an evening service to commence to-morrow.——Mr. BROOKS, the Artist, is about forming a class for instruction in oil painting.——Hon. JOHN P. HALE is announced to lecture before the Young Men's Association, Nov. 3d.——There was a social gathering of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church last evening, to meet Rev. J. L. CORNING, the pastor elect.

ARREST OF BURGLARS.—Yesterday morning officer GARLICK arrested a thief named WM. LESLIE, for breaking into the grocery store of J. H. CORDES & Co., with others, night before last, and stealing $85. LESLIE was at PHIL. DALEY's saloon on Walker's Point, when arrested. This forenoon, officers O'CONNER and DELANY arrested two more of the burglars, one a boy named PETER WILLIS, and the other named WALTER FAULKNER. Both WILLIS and LESLIE have been to Waupun for stealing, and neither has been out a great while. They entered the store by the cellar, and it is thought that they have been concerned in other burglaries in the city.

MUNICIPAL COURT, OCT. 28.—Jesse Kane, drunk and disorderly; penalty $1 and costs. Paid.

John Reed, do. do. Penalty $3 and costs. Paid.

Eli H. Read, embezzlement. Case held open until 3 P. M. yesterday. This case was bro't against Read, whose name is doubtless an alias, on the complaint of Asa White, who complains that he and John H. Clough were partners in Chicago, and that Read was their agent, and embezzled from them $408,57.

Ernst Krucke, assault upon deputy Capron. Trial by jury. Verdict guilty. Penalty $5 and costs, $12,44. Execution issued.

TROTTING MATCH.—The match for $100, mile heats, best 3 in 5, between Mr. BURNHAM's Sam Patch, and Mr. HIGGINS' Simon, came off at the Cold Spring Course yesterday afternoon. Simon won the first heat in 2,55, and came out about a length ahead the second heat, in 2,52. The Judges, however, declared it a dead heat, on the ground that Simon had crowded Sam Patch off his track. Thereupon Mr. HIGGINS withdrew his horse and Sam Patch went round three times by himself in 2,50, 2,52 and 2,49 1-2, winning the race and stake.

THE MUSICAL SOCIETY'S CONCERT, last evening, was well attended. Much of the performance was below the usual standard of excellence attained by this Society. The soprano solos were much the best pieces of the evening. Miss SCHIPTNER always sings well. The instrumentation was creditable, and was loudly applauded. ABT's Parting from the Native Land, a chorus for male voices, gave us the horrors. The overtures, as we have said, were well executed, and were, in themselves, quite sufficient to compensate for any deficiency elsewhere.

CORRECTION.—EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL—Dear Sir:—In the last quotation of the article headed "Purity of the Press," there is a grand mistake, which completely destroys the proper meaning: "Stand in awe, and sin not," rendered "Stand in awe, and fear not." Will you please correct. I have examined the original, and find it Stand in awe, and sin not. I believe the copy sent you was the same, will you please correct under any circumstances.

Yours truly, THE WRITER.

Amphictyons.

Allusion has been made in the Sentinel to the "Amphictyon Club." The allusion was a hap-hazard one, because you, Mr. Editor, are not one of the initiated. But I am. The Amphictyons are veritable codfish—their promulgated ideas, bona fide codfish tails. This assertion may gain me the enmity of their President. I care not a nickle. The public may doubt my revelation. The public may be hanged! When a man has a duty to perform he may ask permission of the public if he chooses, and solicit the public to mark out the path of performance, but not me.—With the conviction that this boldness on my part will effectually cowe the public from any attempt to question my statement, I proceed. The Amphictyons hibernate north of the winged pile, supposed to bear some resemblance to a bloated steamboat, and within the sound of its orthodox bell, whose jangle was never heard without an echoing after-clap from an opposite steeple. I am not aware that the Amphictyons have any regular or stated meetings. The bond of union consists in the free masoury of codfish, symbolized by sharp shirt-collars, without any visible joints and tied with attenuated garters. They carry an atmosphere of their own, or perhaps not so much their own as the muskrats, and they merely exist in Milwaukee, or exist at all as a mark of patronage to the age and locality.

A friend of mine recently designated them as "patrician sprigs;" I have no objection to the patronymic. Sprigs I rather think is appropriate, being they are the most tender offshoots of the great social trunk. Hyperian is a fair specimen of his fellows, indeed may be called their presiding officer in immature codfishery. His habits may not be uninteresting. He has attained the third degree of the order, which is a delicate exclusiveness. An ingenious modeling of the exterior so that the clerk becomes the bearer of a serene independence and cultivated nonchalence, not always acquired by the monied patriarch. He has infused an inapproachability into his full coat sleeves and immaculate shirt bosom. He extracts an admission from you anywhere that "he is nicer than I." The rules of this third degree of the order restrict him to the patronage of Albany Hall only when STRAKOSCH comes round on one of those annual professional cycles, and then he blooms gallantly; offers himself and yellow cane to the Misses DE SMITHS and VON BROWNS, and cuts his own sister because her opera hood isn't "the cheese." He engrafts a lorgnette on his arms, endures the opera and endorses the Wisconsin's opinion of it the next day. BALATKA and his "plebs" never hear the sweet assurance of his applauding kids. The Young Men's lectures are lounged into sometimes and lounged out of in the true ennui style.

Hyperion will button-hole you on 'Change, and it is surprising how clean his brain is of wheat dust; he confidentially imparts several new mysteries about this or that young lady; tells you when and where the belles were seen last and what new styles they introduced; is overflowing with the mysteries of "our set;" enumerates the champagne suppers lost and is thoroughly posted on en bon point and point lace, and knows a thing or two about this or that fair creature which he will not expose.

At an evening party Hyperion mingles dignity with condescension; criticises Minerva's playing and alludes to THALBERG: makes a witty remark about the effect of the chandelier on the pale Medusa—calls it "ghastly"—and leaves before the breaking up unless the Amphictyonic ladies are present, in which case he will escort one home in her own carriage.

The next day he will remark to you, "That wasn't a bad remark of mine about the gas, eh?" and later, when you meet him on the Newhall steps he will call you one side and say:—Bye-the-bye I got off a devilish good thing last night. I suppose you heard of it before this. Ghastly—that wasn't bad was it? Created quite a sensation, 'pon honor. I mean to give it to POTTER in writing.

Hyperion is not a myth and the Amphictyons are as widely diffused as the Sons of Malta. BERTRAM.

MEETING IN THE NINTH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT.

THE REPUBLICANS of the Ninth Assembly District, composed of the towns of Lake, Oak Creek and Franklin, in the county of Milwaukee, are requested to meet at the house of Henry Bauer, (on Howell Road) on Tuesday, Nov. 1st, at 2 o'clock P. M., to nominate a candidate for the Assembly, and transact such other business as may come before the meeting.

O. ELLSWORTH,

THE GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY of CANADA.

PUBLIC NOTICE.—The extension of the above Railway to Sarnia, and the completion of the New Line between Port Huron and Detroit, on the 1st of November next, will form a continuous Road under one Management from Detroit, (Michigan), to Toronto, Kingston, Montreal, Quebec and Portland, (Maine), thus establishing a new First Class Route between the Western and New England States.

The connection formed at Detroit with the Michigan Central and Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroads, will enable Freight to be sent through from St. Louis, Cincinnati, and Chicago, with but one transhipment, as the completion of the Great Victoria Bridge at Montreal, before the close of Navigation will prevent any interruption to the traffic.

At Portland the Grand Trunk connects with the Railroads leading into Boston, also with a First Class Line of Powerful Steamboats which leave Portland and Boston every night.

The Magnificent Vessels forming the Line of the Montreal Ocean Steamship Company, run between Quebec and Liverpool in Summer, and between Portland and Liverpool during Winter, waiting the arrival of the Connecting Trains of the Grand Trunk Railway. Passengers and Freight booked through and put on board free of expense.

At Sarnia (opposite Port Huron), the Company have built extensive Freight Warehouses, and on and after the 15th instant, will be prepared to receive Flour and other Rolling Freight intended to go Eastward by Railway, and store the same, for a reasonable time, Free of Charge.

An Elevator of large capacity is in course of erection at Sarnia, and will shortly be ready for receiving grain.

JUNIUS JUDSON,
PATENTEE AND MANUFACTURER OF JUDSON'S PATENT
GOVERNOR VALVES, FOR REGULATING THE MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.

☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patent issued in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1850. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1851. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 6th 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or retard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperature necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governor is continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really indentical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public. I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements;—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations. TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Trial of the Insurrectionists.

CHARLESTOWN, Oct. 28—3 P. M.

The afternoon session of yesterday was occupied with the examination of Col. Washington and conductor Phelps, but nothing of importance was elicited beyond what has already been disclosed in their public statements.

Cook passed through Frederick City yesterday, in charge of officers on their way to Charlestown.

The testimony was then resumed. Conductor Phelps being recalled, Mr. Botts put a question to him, prepared by Brown. The firing was commenced by those men on the bridge who shot Haywood; the next firing was by Throckmorton; do not know whether the firing at Haywood was intentional; there was no attack made on Brown's men until after Haywood was shot; he was shot by armed men on the Winchester span of the bridge.

Col. Washington recalled—The negotiations with Brown for the release of the prisoners took place before the general firing commenced on Monday; do not know whether all the prisoners signed the proposition for a suspension of firing before the opening of negotiations.

Brown frequently suggested that the prisoners should cross the bridge with him to the second canal lock, and not to be fired upon until after they reached that point. No objection was made by any of the prisoners to the proposition. Brown said he was too old a soldier to yield the advantage he possessed in holding hostages.

Brown's son was wounded, during the day, in the breast—the ball passing around to his side—but he took his weapon again and fired frequently before his suffering compelled him to retire. Heard Capt. Brown complain of the bad faith of the people in firing on the flag of truce. Heard him make no threat, or even show any vindictiveness against the people. Mr. Brewer went out and brought in a promise that the people would not fire, while the negotiation was pending.

Movements of Paul Morphy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28—3 P. M.

Paul Morphy leaves here on Saturday, for Philadelphia, on his way to New Orleans.—Mr. Morphy will probably stop a day or two in each of the following places: Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Charleston and Mobile. It is altogether uncertain whether he will, as has been reported, return to New York to reside, or will enter upon the practice of law in his native city.

Roger A. Pryor Elected to Congress.

PETERSBURG, Va., Oct. 28—3 P. M.

All parties concede the election of Roger A. Pryor in this Congressional district, by from 1,200 to 1,500 maj. A great jubilation occurred here last night, and Mr. Pryor addressed the crowd from the Merchant's Exchange.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—3 P. M.

The United States District Court of South Carolina, has made an order for the restitution of the Ketch Bros. to the claimants thereof. The court said that the cargo, crew and destination are circumstances chiefly to be relied upon to prove an alleged violation of the laws, prohibiting the African Slave trade.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Trial of the Insurrectionists.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 28—9 P. M.

Mr. Hunter read a list of the members of the Convention. It was headed by William Charles Morris, President of the Convention; H. Kazi, Secretary of the Convention. On handing the list to Brown, he exclaimed with a groan: That's my signature. In reference to another paper, he said: I have nothing to say about that. The letter from J. R. Giddings, acknowledging the receipt of a letter from Brown, and saying that he would be pleased to see him at his house during the summer, was read.

Mr. Hunter then read a letter from Gerritt Smith, about the Kansas work already published.

A number of witnesses were examined.—The evidence elicited no new facts. Here the prosecution rested.

The defence called Joseph A. Brewer, who testified that he was one of the prisoners in the engine house with Col. Washington and others. Brown remarked that the prisoners should share their danger. They were allowed to shelter themselves as well as they could. Cross went out with a flag of truce. Another went out and came back wounded. Stevens and Ketzmiller went out, and Stevens was shot.

I supposed Stevens was dead; he lay near the corner of the depot; heard groaning and saw Stevens moving; asked Brown to send a man to relieve Stevens; Brown refused to send one because he would be shot; witness was allowed to go and assist Stevens into the hotel; witness returned according to his pledge to the engine house, and was sent several times by Brown to request the citizens not to shoot, as the lives of the prisoners were endangered; negotiations were going on between Brown and the prisoners before the general firing commenced; Brown proposed that he should retain possession of what he held, including the Armory and negroes; Washington and all seemed to acquiesce in this arrangement.

Cross was sent to confer with Beecham and others on the subject; a guard went along, who were fired on. After that Stevens wanted to shoot, but Ketzmiller appealed to him and they went out together to stop the firing. When they did not return, Brown seemed to show temper and there was a change in arrangements; after that Brown said he had it in his power to destroy that place in half an hour, but he would not do it unless resisted; think a shot from the water tank struck Coppee; he then returned fire and some one said that man's down. The special object of Winter's going out was to stop the firing from the tank, which was annoying to those in the guard house.

A. M. Ketzmiller sworn—I made repeated endeavors to arrange matters with Brown; he said his object was to light pro-Slavery men; I was first surprised, then indignant, and finally disgusted with Brown; he said to me, "there is a company of riflemen on the bridge—get them to go in company with Stevens;" Hunter told them I was sorry they left their guns; Stevens remarked, "that would not do."

I had no flag and did not consider myself the bearer of a flag of truce as I was desired; as to the rifle company on the bridge I saw they were our own men; I waved my handkerchief and told Stevens and the other man to remain; I soon heard firing very close; Stevens fired in reply to a shot which struck him, from the house side of Winchester R. R.

The Condition of Affairs in Europe.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—9 P. M.

The last mail from England brought advices from distinguished sources, respecting the present unsettled condition of affairs in Europe, by which it appears that none can foresee how difficulties attendant on the Italian question could be settled, or what will be the result of the Zurich Conference. It is evident that the various sovereigns are alarmed, being apprehensive of a general war.—England, it is said, has no power to depend on excepting Germany, and being favorable to reform movements in Italy, she knows not how to act between the two, and she is fearful of losing the friendship of the one in advocating the cause of the other. Russia, who, since the Crimean war, has had no more Continental alliances, awaits events before coming to a decision as to what part she will take; and with a view of acting intelligently, the Emperor has ordered his ministers at the principal courts to join him at Warsaw, in order to give him ample information on the state of the respective countries to which they are diplomatically assigned.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—9 P. M.

For prudential reasons, more than the usual amount of caution seems to be observed in official quarters, in concealing from the public the present condition of the San Juan Island question, and hence the contradictory statements prevalent concerning it.

The new steamer built at Pensacola will soon arrive at Norfolk to be fitted with her engines, and will convey thither the officers and crew of the Fulton.

Reports prevail that a requisition will be made for certain aiders and abettors of the Harper's Ferry conspirators, but the rumor cannot be traced to reliable sources.

Aaron Van Camp obtained to-day, in the Circuit Court, for the District of Columbia, $16,000 against Jonathan Jenkins. This was a suit for damages suffered by the plaintiff three years ago, from the act of the defendant as commercial agent of the U. S., at Navigator's Island, in the South Pacific.

An Explanation from Hon. J. R. Giddings.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28—9 P. M.

Giddings delivered an address this evening for the purpose of explaining what he knows about Brown. He says he invited Brown to Jefferson, Ohio, where he delivered a lecture on Sunday after church, telling of his trials in Kansas. After it G. prompted the audience to contribute for the relief of B., after which B. took tea at G.'s residence, where they had a conversation; though Brown never said he intended to visit slave States or free slaves out! No mention was made of Harper's Ferry or Virginia organizations or Provisional Government.

He acknowledges contributing three dollars to Brown's son; towards the necessities of his father, after the rescue of Doy from the kidnappers, a matter in which Giddings acknowledged taking a strong interest. In bestowing this gratuity he had little idea it was to fit out an expedition to capture Harper's Ferry, effect the conquest of the Old Dominion, strike terror to the executive and imperil government.

A Broadside at Douglas.

The National of yesterday has a three-column editorial, holding STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS responsible for all the disasters which have befallen the Democratic party since 1858. The article concludes as follows:

> Perfidy so deep and wanton to his own especial faction, to the Democracy, whose shield he still claims, and to the nation, has not before stained the history of an American in public life. It is not venial or excusable. We do not know a fact that can palliate it. His great wrong was the fruit of his restless ambition to be President, his reckless zeal to advance his own selfish designs, his dull and unreliable judgment. He is marked down in every man's note book as a worse enemy to the Democratic party than its open and avowed opponents. In adoption, by the Democracy, of his exploded fallacy of "squatter sovereignty," in its congressional action, under his lead, upon the subject of slavery in the Territories, and at length, in his gross treachery to the very order of things which he inaugurated, are the germs of all the Democratic defeats from 1854 to 1859. Has he not already been the cause of sufficient evils to the Democracy?

Such being the case, why is it that the National persists in supporting DOUGLAS candidates and a DOUGLAS platform in this State?

"Come Out of That Tall Grass."

> The Sentinel denies that the "Opposition" had a majority of the members of the U. S. House of Representatives, when Banks was elected Speaker. This proves that the Sentinel is so reckless and unscrupulous as to deny a fact—no matter how notorious that fact may be—if the denial of it will subserve the temporary interests of the Republican party.—News, of yesterday.

Let us see whether it is the Sentinel, or the News that is "so reckless and unscrupulous." The News averred that "the Republicans" had a majority in the House of Representatives, when Mr. BANKS was elected Speaker. It was that statement the Sentinel denied, and not that "the Opposition" had a majority at the time mentioned. Mr. BANKS, as even the News ought to know, was elected by a plurality vote.

From the Hartford Times.

> THE KANSAS LEADERS.—Lane, the murderer of his neighbor, who came to his yard for a pail of water.
>
> BROWN, who went to Kansas, as he himself avers, not to reside, but to take part in the fray there—the man who, after entering into the conflict, has been praised for killing Missourians. He is now under arrest for killing peaceable citizens in the streets at Harper's Ferry, and also for the crime of high treason.
>
> Cook, the principal aid to Brown in his murderous attack at Harper's Ferry.
>
> Here are three of the leaders in the scenes and troubles of Kansas. The people are beginning to see the kind of material that figured there, making political capital for the Brown Republicans.

Neither LANE, BROWN nor COOK have received aid or comfort from the Republicans, in their lawless acts. Instead of being rewarded they have been censured and condemned.

But how is it with Democratic "Kansas Leaders?" Their outrages have not only been approved and palliated by the Democratic press, but rewarded by the Democratic Administration.

S. W. CLARK murdered a man named BARBER, by shooting him in the back. For this practical illustration of modern Democracy, he was made a Purser in the Navy!

JAMES GARDNER, who co-operated with CLARK in the murder of BARBER, was appointed Postmaster at Lawrence!

JONES headed the mob which sacked Lawrence. He was paid off with a lucrative office in New Mexico.

FREDERICK EMERY, one of the murderers of PHILLIPS, at Leavenworth, was compensated by the appointment of Receiver of the Land Office at Ogden!

J. S. MURPHY, who helped in the assassination of PHILLIPS, and who was notoriously one of the gang by whom HOPPS was scalped, was made Agent for the Pottawottamie Indians!

RUSH ELMORE, who made a persevering effort to assassinate J. H. KAGI, was elevated to the office of U. S. District Judge!

RUSSELL and WADDEL furnished teams and provisions to the Border Ruffians, who invaded Kansas and seized the ballot-boxes in 1856. For this they have been given immense contracts by the Government.

Other assassins and ruffians have been the recipients of Executive favors. Contrast with these instances the stern disapprobation manifested by Republicans, of BROWN's mad outbreak, and say which Party has done the most to encourage violence!—Albany Eve. Journal.

THE VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—The official returns of the election in Pennsylvania have been published from every county in the State, except Venango, which has not yet been received. Without Venango the votes stand as follows:

AUDITOR-GENERAL.

For Thomas E. Cochran, Opposition	179,518
For Richardson L. Wright, Democrat	162,707
Majority for Cochran	17,166

SURVEYOR-GENERAL.

For William H. Keim, Opposition	180,270
For John Rowe Democrat	162,216
Majority for Keim	18,014

The returns from Venango will add a trifle to these majorities. The total vote of the State will be about twenty-three thousand less than it was in 1858, and about one hundred and fifteen thousand less than it was in the presidential election of 1856.

THE THREATENED COLLISION.—The imminent danger of a collision in Italy, at the last dates, was in the States of the Church. The Pope seems to be preparing to attack his rebellious subjects in Romagna. His troops are assembled in the neighborhood of Ancona; they are advanced, indeed, almost as far as Rimini. The revolutionary troops are but a little way from there. The outposts of the armies are fast coming in contact with each other. Garibaldi and his men, so far from shrinking from the impending conflict, are eager for it.

If the Pope is foiled in the attempt to subjugate the Romagnese, he will call upon the Catholic powers, France, Austria, Spain and Naples, to assist him. The remarks of LOUIS NAPOLEON, in response to the address from Bordeaux, are significant to his determination, that if temporal authority is continued to the Pope it must remain through its hold upon the affections and respect of its temporal subjects and no longer through the armed intervention of a foreign power.

Mr Brydges Vindicated.

We have noticed with regret, to use a mild phrase, the bitter and unrelenting personal warfare that for some time past has been carried on against Mr. C. J. BRYDGES, managing director of the Great Western Rail Road, and President of the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway, through the columns of the Hamilton Spectator. No expedient that a fertile imagination could devise, or personal pique could suggest, has been left untried to prejudice Mr. BRYDGES in the minds of the stockholders, and without, we are happy to say, accomplishing the unworthy end sought.—Having exhausted every other means of assault, Mr. BRYDGES' assailants are endeavoring to prove that the grand work in which he has taken a leading part will prove a failure, seizing upon the decrease in the traffic of the Great Western road during the past two years—which is wholly due to the commercial depression of the times—to give point to their malignant arguments.

The assistance the Great Western Company extended to the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway, in order to complete that important feeder to their road, these self-constituted and very wise censors sneer at as being a "bad bargain," and declare with the most ridiculous persistence that the Great Western Road would have "commanded" the business of Milwaukee just as well if the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway had never been constructed. Nothing could be more fallacious than such an assertion, and it is so transparently absurd as to require no refutation. Had not the Great Western Company taken hold of the Detroit & Milwaukee Road and pushed it forward to completion, the Grand Trunk would assuredly have done so, and taken from the Great Western a good share of the large and constantly increasing business now flowing to it through this channel.

The active part Mr. BRYDGES took in that important enterprise, and his energetic efforts to secure its early consummation, is the amplest evidence of his sagacity, and is doubtless so regarded by every sensible person sincerely interested in the welfare of the Great Western Road. The vast section of country, comprising Wisconsin, Northern Iowa and Minnesota, already containing about a million and a half inhabitants, and growing rapidly all the while, must always be tributary to the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway, because that is the shortest and most direct channel both for travel and transportation, between the seaboard and the North-west.

If anything were necessary to prove the absurdity of the statement that we have quoted, the comparative weekly earnings of the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway, this season and last, showing an increase of nearly a hundred per cent. in favor of this year, would most effectually answer that purpose. But we do not conceive that Mr. BRYDGES needs any defence against these charges, and the only object we had in view in mentioning this matter at all, was to express our decided satisfaction at the vindication of that gentleman's management of the Great Western Rail Road, by the shareholders at their recent semi-annual meeting in London. After such an expression of thanks and confidence, Mr. BRYDGES can afford to let his enemies howl.

FROM JAPAN.—Mr. HARRIS, U. S. Consul General at Japan, has left Nagasake, and arrived at Jeddo, where a large temple had been assigned him as a residence. He gave $1,500 for repairing the temple he had inhabited at Nagasake, where he had been treated with great friendliness and consideration by the Japanese people and officials.—The Embassy from Japan to the United States was expected to leave in February.

When Mr. HARRIS and his party arrived at Jeddo, the same immense crowd of people which had been attracted by previous foreign arrivals, filled the streets and the capital.—The following is a description of the residence set apart for the American Consul General:

> The temple Jan-Shook-Jee is one hundred and sixty-five feet in length and seventy-five wide, and with the use of the Japanese mattings, or sliding screens, it can be divided into twenty-four comfortable apartments.—Attached to it is a large cook house, wash house, apartments for his servants, &c. It is now divided as follows: large dining hall seventy feet in length, two large parlors, reception room, private office, private parlor and ten sleeping apartments, all on one floor. It is all furnished in a neat but plain manner (having purchased the same at Shanghae, on his late visit there). The whole building is covered over with thick, heavy Japanese matting, which was furnished by order of the Emperor. This, as well as the adjoining temples, are surrounded by all kinds of forest and fruit trees, some of the former are the handsomest that any of us had ever seen in any part of the world. In the rear of this residence is a beautiful winding hill, covered over with beautiful shade trees, and under which Mr. Harris will, I have no doubt, take much pleasure in the hot Summer weather. At the foot of the hill is a fine pond about one hundred feet wide, containing some of the largest and most elegant gold fish I ever beheld, while on the surface are strewn a large number of mandarin and other kinds of choice ducks, which Mr. Harris has, at great cost, collected during his sojourn in Japan.
> The writer of the above mentions one palace a mile square, built of a whitish kind of stone.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE TWO PARTIES.—In view of the dastardly and absurd efforts of some of the organs of the Sham-Democracy to turn the Harper's Ferry affair to political account, the St. Louis Democrat truly remarks:

> The Harper's Ferry emeute is regarded by the oligarchists as a God-send in the hour of their extremity, hoping that the indignation excited by it may be turned to their account in the elections. But they will be disappointed.
>
> The story of the wretched leader and his little band, composed of his sons and associates in Kansas, by whom this wicked and foolish attempt was made, shows that it was the work of madness, aggravated by the heaviest personal injury inflicted on them by the ruffians who invaded Kansas at the instance of the pro-slavery party. The outbreak is therefore one of the fruits of that villainy which was concocted at Washington by the leaders of the Administration, executed by Atchison, who was sent from his seat in the Senate for that purpose, by invading Kansas, seizing the Government, and murdering many of the people, and which was justified and sustained by the united votes of the party in Congress and by the Executive. Now, no Republican approves or justifies the retaliation. What a contrast this presents between the parties now contending for the possession—the oligarchy instigating every species of crime, and not only protecting the criminals, but rewarding them; the Republicans denouncing violence and wrong, by whomsoever perpetrated.

THE Democratic papers, with their usual candor and sagacity, charge the crazy folly and wickedness of "old Brown" upon Mr. Seward, and affirm that the outbreak at Harper's Ferry is in the direct line of the programme laid down in the famous speech in which Mr. Seward declared that in all history there had existed an "irrepressible conflict" between right and wrong, light and darkness, freedom and slavery.

Why don't these papers state the whole truth? Why do they keep back from an indignant public the fact that Mr. Seward is now in Egypt? What is he there for? What can he be there for, unless it is to engage the locusts and the frogs, and the plagues of Egypt in general, to take part in this conflict? The Boston Traveller, a Black Republican paper, incautiously admitted, last week, that Mr. Seward had gone to Egypt to hold a little private conversation with the Sphynx; and what reasonable Democrat, what man who has swallowed the other stories about him, can doubt that his real purpose is, not to talk with the Sphynx, but to bring it over, and the Pyramids and Cleopatra's needle and Pompey's pillar, to aid in the enforcement of the "bloody and brutal" doctrine that freedom is preferable to slavery.—Providence Journal.

MR WEDDERBURN, afterwards Lord Loughborough, was once asked whether he really delivered, in the House of Commons, a speech which the newspapers ascribed to him? "Why, to be sure," said he, "there are many things in that speech which I did say, and there are more which I wish I had said."

"MADAM, has your piano an Æolian attachment?" asked Stubbs, the other night, of the wife of a man who appeared to live fully up to, if not beyond his means.—"Hush!" whispered Stiggins in his ear; "it has a sheriff's attachment." Stubbs dropped the subject.

HOW OFTEN do men mistake the love of their opinions for the love of truth.

The Harper's Ferry "Insurrection."

We copy and commend to the attention of our readers, two articles from leading New York journals, in reply to the attempt of reckless party organs to charge upon the Republican Party the blame for the outbreak at Harper's Ferry:

From the Albany Evening Journal.

> WHO ENCOURAGE INSURRECTIONS?—"Curses, like chickens, come home to roost," and lies return to plague their inventors. The Slaveholders and the Democratic Party are proving these trite truths by their experience.
>
> Ever since the Republican organization began, they have deliberately and persistently misrepresented its character. All its platforms and declarations, and the life-long action of its members, show that it contemplates only legal peaceful and constitutional measures—neither interfering with Slavery in the States, nor countenancing mob violence anywhere.—Yet its Democratic opponents have pertinaciously insisted that it was an Abolition Party, seeking to liberate the Slaves by fire and sword; have trumpeted this lie through their newspapers, shouted it in their public meetings, inserted it in their resolutions, reiterated it in their conversation, at home and abroad, in the streets, at the table and by the fireside, until ignorant, uneducated slaves at the South, have it thus dinned daily into their ears by their masters, have come to believe it!
>
> Slaveholders themselves created the insurrection of 1857, by their lying stories about Fremont, which encouraged their slaves to expect and prepare for the coming of a liberator. The Slaveholders themselves are continually putting the idea of insurrection into the heads of these chattels by these absurd fictions, which the latter accept as true. If they will thus sow the wind, who can be surprised that they reap every year or two, the whirlwind? If there is now, as they assert, a wide spread conspiracy among the Slaves, Slaveholders themselves are its creators and fermenters. They madly and blindly endanger the safety of their own homes by their persistent political falsehoods!
>
> Nor is it the black alone whom the Democratic party encourages to deeds of violence. Within the past few years it has lent its sanction to lawless enterprises of every sort: Border Invasions, Filibuster Expeditions, Lynch Law to surpass discussion, brutality and bloodshed among Congressmen, violence at Elections, &c., thus ministering to the vilest passions, encouraging contempt for law, and resort to the bludgeon, the pistol and the bowie-knife. Here are the madman Brown, and his crazy crew, endangering the lives and property of innocent people by an insane outbreak. But who made Brown a madman by murdering his sons? Who taught that crazy crew to band together with arms in their hands, as the most effective way to accomplish political purposes? The Border Ruffians of Kansas find the Democratic Administration at Washington!
>
> The classic fable relates that he who went out and sowed dragons' teeth suddenly found himself surrounded by a crop of armed men. Buchanan and Pierce have been sowing dragons' teeth seven years. Their encouragement of lawlessness and violence is hurrying one locality after another into scenes of anarchy, for which the only sure, speedy and permanent cure is the peaceful transfer, at the next election, of the reins of Government, from the imbecile hands that hold them, into the grasp of men who neither deal in mob violence themselves, nor will permit it to be attempted by others.

From the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer.

> The Harper's Ferry Negro Insurrection, turns out to be no Negro Insurrection after all; but an attempt on the part of a Madman and Fanatic, by the name of Brown, to incite the Slaves about Harper's Ferry to fight for their Freedom. This the slaves very wisely refused to do; and most justly, the madman, his son, and associate Fanatics, have fallen. Nobody will regret their fate; but unfortunately the innocent have fallen with the guilty; good citizens and honest men in striving to enforce the law have fallen victims to the mad fanaticism of this abolitionist.
>
> Such are the brief facts of this emeute at Harper's Ferry, and yet that reckless journal, the New York Herald, and its co-laborer, the Express, charge this movement upon the Republican Party!! This is characteristic; but that our readers may have an opportunity of judging of the true character of Brown, and of his thirst for vengeance against the slaveholders, we copy from an editorial leaded article in the Herald the following facts in relation to Brown's history. It will be seen, according to the Herald's own account,
>
> First, That this Brown had suffered severely from the pro-slavery Border Ruffians of Missouri; and by them, made insane.
>
> Secondly, That he was so fanatical upon this question of Slavery, that he was imprisoned as a MADMAN for threatening the life of the late John C. Calhoun! and
>
> Thirdly, That even in Kansas, the Republican party repudiated this fanatic and mad man, while the border ruffians of the pro-slavery party, gave him cause for MADNESS by the murder of his family!!
>
> If the Herald and Express can make political capital out of this affair, they are welcome to do so; but in the meantime we make the following extracts from the Herald:
>
> From the Herald.
>
> "The facts are these:—Kansas Ossawattomie Brown, the rampant abolitionist, who some time ago was imprisoned in Washington for threatening the life of the late Mr. Calhoun, President of the Kansas Constitutional Convention, had, with a few other abolitionists, organized with the insane idea of making a servile insurrection among the negroes of the South, and chosen Harper's Ferry as the point to start from. There was not more than twenty white men of this party in the arsenal when it was taken. There were some other white men and a few negroes, who were pressed and held in the arsenal more as prisoners than auxiliaries. * * *
>
>
> He first exhibited his qualities at the time the Free State and pro-Slavery parties, under the lead of Gov. Robinson on one side and Gov. Shannon on the other, met to make a treaty of peace. After Governor Robinson had stated to the people who were gathered around the hotel the terms of the peace, Brown took the stand, UNINVITED, and opposed the terms of the treaty. He was in favor of ignoring all treaties, and such leading men as Robinson, Lane and Lowry, and proceeding at once against the border ruffian invaders, drive them from the soil or hang them if taken. Gen. Lowry, who was Chairman of the Committee of Safety, and also commander of the Free State troops, ordered Brown under arrest. The latter made no physical resistance, but it was soon discovered that he was altogether too combustible a person to retain as a prisoner, and a compromise was made with him by the Free State men, and he was released. He was informed by the leaders of that party that his remarks were intended to undo what they were trying to accomplish by means of the treaty; that he was a stranger in Lawrence and Kansas, and ought not by his rash remarks to compromise the people of Lawrence until he had known them longer and knew them better.
>
> One of his sons, who was elected to the Legislature in February, 1856, was seized and taken from Ossawattomie to Lecompton in chains, a distance of thirty miles. His feet and hands were chained together with a large heavy chain, the size of that used upon ox teams. He was compelled to walk the whole distance beneath a burning sun. The irons wore the flesh from his ankles; he was attacked with the brain fever, was neglected, and died in two or three days. He was a companion of Gov. Robinson, Jenkins, (since shot by Lane) and some eight or ten others. Another son of Capt. Brown was shot at Ossawatomie by a marauding party from Missouri. After the death of his first son, occasioned by the tortures and fatigue of his forced march, Brown swore vengeance upon the pro-Slavery party, and it was frequently observed by the more prudent of the Free State men that he was evidently insane on the subject. He was always considered by them as a dangerous man, was never taken into their councils, and never consulted by them with reference either to their policy or movements."
> Pretty conclusive testimony this. The pro-Slavery party murdered his sons and made him "a madman, swearing vengeance against his enemies." And the Republicans repudiated all connexion with him as an insane fanatic—made so by pro-Slavery cruelty!

A CONSIDERABLE portion of the press of the South is crazy on the Harper's Ferry insurrection. The editors are mad as March hares—mad as Old Brown. The Richmond Whig, anxious to lead in the race of fanaticism, says, "as to the prisoners, let them be hung, and that forthwith; * * hang them first, and try them afterwards; * * have those abolition incendiaries hung or shot forthwith; * * our suggestion to the Governor is—put to immediate death all the white villians engaged in the Harper's Ferry affair, and dispose of the question of jurisdiction afterwards." This is the language of that highly conservative journal—the Richmond Whig—the opposition organ of Old Virginia.—Cincinnati Commercial.

JOSEPH was a bad boy. He had succeeded in blinding his mother for some time as to his imbibing propensities. One night Joseph came in before the old lady had retired. He sat down, and with a look of semi-intoxicated wisdom, began conversing about the goodness of the crops and other matters. He got along very well until he espied what he supposed to be a cigar on the mantel-piece; he caught it up, and placing one end in his mouth, began very gravely to light it at the candle. He drew and pulled until he was getting red in the face. The old lady's eyes were opened, and she addressed him: "If thee takes that tenpenny nail for a cigar, it is time thee went to bed."

PROCLAMATION—THANKSGIVING.

ANOTHER YEAR, with its varied experiences and vicissitudes, has nearly gone, the seed time and harvest have passed away, and the products of the earth more abundant and excellent, in many respects than usual, have been gathered in. Our State has been favored by an overruling Providence with exemption from pestilence, or any prevailing disease, and the commercial and financial distress, under which our land has so long suffered, seems to be approaching an end. As a State we have been free from evil disturbances, and men have gone about their daily avocations in peace and quietness. As a nation, too, we have been exempted from the scenes of blood which have been the result in other lands of the shock of contending hosts.

It is right that we should, as a people, render the tribute of our thanks to the Author of all good, for the establishment and continuance of our free institutions, for the general health and prosperity of our people, for the blessings of peace, for the privileges of free education, and freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, and for all the unnumbered blessings, individual and national, so bountifully showered upon us.

Therefore, in accordance with the time-honored usage, I do hereby recommend to the people of Wisconsin that they observe THURSDAY, THE 24th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of THANKSGIVING, and that, abstaining from their secular avocations on that day, they unite in their several localities in grateful praise to Almighty God, for his constant care and abundant mercies.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed L. S. my name and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at Madison, this 25th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

By the Governor,
ALEX. W. RANDALL.
J. D. RUGGLES, Ass't Secretary of State. oct26

A GOOD ANECDOTE OF MR. BUCHANAN.—Mr. VANDENHOFF, in his new work, "Leaves from an Actor's Note Book," tells the following story of Mr. BUCHANAN at a Lord Mayor's dinner at London, several years ago:

> The solitary flash that lit up the tables—the solitary stroke that told—came from the forge of Mr. J. Buchanan, the American Minister. In reply to some toast of the Lord Mayor's, complimentary to the United States, Mr. Buchanan rose, put his hand, I think, into his broad, white waistcoat pocket, and began:
>
> "My Lord Mayor, my lords and gentlemen: Republican as I am," he paused for a moment, and rather there was a solemn silence at his formal and rather ominous beginning.
>
> "Republican as I am, there is one institution of Great Britain, for which I feel the deepest respect, and the most affectionate admiration. I fervently pray that, whatever changes may take place—whatever reforms may be carried out—whatever alterations may be wrought by public sentiment and opinion—whatever revolutions, even (which heaven avert!) may take place in this country—I fervently pray that one institution, at least, may be spared—that it may continue to flourish, to grow, to increase and be strengthened and confirmed! I allude, my lords and gentlemen, to the Public Dinners of Great Britain!"
>
> Imagine the surprise, the shouts of laughter, and the cheers that followed this unexpectedly humorous turn to the solemn and imposing opening of his Republican exordium! The American Minister had made a hit; he clenched it by courteously acknowledging the hospitalities he had received in England; and, proposing the health of Lady Moon, sat down amidst general applause."

CITY AUCTION ROOM.
I HAVE THE FOLLOWING PROPERTY which I want to exchange for Dry Goods, or any other description of Goods:
First—A good Farm in Juneau County, Wisconsin; twenty-five acres under fence and in cultivation; a log cabin, such as we all were accustomed to live in when we first came to this country, twenty-five years ago; a good stream of water running through the entire farm; 40 acres of it is heavy timber. A large settlement surrounds the said farm.
Second—I have that large brown house, opposite Post Office on Wisconsin st., which contains about twenty-five rooms and rents for about one thousand dollars.
Third—I have two horses, one perfectly sound, kind and gentle; the other is somewhat foundered; but take the pair together and they make a good team for family use. Also, in connection, I have a carriage, buggy, wagon, sleigh, two sett harness, two side saddles, two mens' saddles, three bridles, whip, &c., &c.,
Fourth—I have three hundred acres of school land in Marquette County, Wis. This land has been selected, as all other school lands. Now, all the above property I will exchange for Dry Goods, &c., or for any good city property. The said property is free from all incumbrances. CALEB WALL,

Special Notices.

Catarrh! Catarrh! Catarrh! Catarrh!
What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of persons suffer all sorts of annoyance from Catarrh. Most people know what its inconvenience and results are, yet but few know how it can be cured. It is simply a chronic irritation, and often enlargement of follicles, and consequent thickening of the mucous membrane, lining the nasal cavities, frontal sinuses, and posterior nares, and sometimes extending into the throat and lungs. From this result tightness and often vertigo of the head, obstructed nose, or a profuse flow of mucus, loss of smell, nasal voice, and often impaired hearing and taste.

The old-school remedies have never been able to do anything for it. Nasal infections and inhalations are as painful and expensive as they are generally worthless. Yet HUMPHREYS' CATARRH SPECIFIC, a simple Sugar Pill, taken two or three times per day, promptly cures the milder cases; cures at once all colds in the head, and radically cures, by persevering use, the most obstinate cases, as is proved by the experience of hundreds.

Price, with full directions.
FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; do, in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $3.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address,

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL TO PROCURE MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflamation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful Female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arise from teething or from any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

☞None genuine unless the fac simile of CURTIS & Perkins, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

THE PUBLIC BLESSING WHICH IS now so universally admitted to exist in Moffat's Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters, is every day demonstrated by their astonishing efficacy in the cases which they are announced to cure. All the complaints of the stomach and bowels, weakness of the digestive organs and of the system generally, bilious and liver affections, night fevers, head aches, piles costiveness, consumption, rheumatism, scurvy, impurity of the blood, or blotched and sallow complexions, soon yield to their curative properties. A single trial invariably secures them the title of the best family medicine now before the public. For sale by the proprietor, W. B. COURAGE.

BY ALICE CAREY.

Knowing the right and true
Let the world say to you
Worst that it can;
Answer despite the shame,
I'll not belie my name—
I'll be a man!

Armed only with the right,
Standing alone to fight
Wrong, old as time,
Holding up hands to God
Over the rack and rod—
Over the crimson sod,
That is sublime!

Monarchs of old, at will
Parcelled the world, but still
Crowns may be won;
Yet there are piles to light—
Putting all fear to flight,
Shouting for truth and right,
Who will mount on?

Religious Miscellany.

THE BEGGAR WOMAN.—Once in a time of famine an unknown beggar woman, poorly but cleanly clad, went through a certain village asking alms.

From some houses she was sent away with rough words; at others she received a very small gift; only one poor gardner, as she was very cold, invited her into his warm room: and his wife, who had just baked cake, gave her a nice large piece.

The next day all the people at whose door the beggar woman had called, were invited to supper in the Queen's palace. When they came into the dining-room they beheld a small table laden with the richest food, and also a large table with many plates, on which there was here and there a piece of mouldy bread, a few artichokes, or a handful of bran: but for the most part the plates were entirely empty.

The Queen said, "I was myself that beggar woman in disguise, wishing, in this time of distress, when the poor are in such great need, to prove the charity of my people.—These two poor gardeners took me in and entertained me the best they could; hence they will now eat with me, and I will fix a pension for life on them. The rest of you will entertain yourselves with the same fare which you gave me, and which you will find on these plates. With this, remember that in the future world, you will also one day be served as you serve others.

What we give unto His poor
To our Lord Himself is given:
What we sow of love on earth
We shall richly reap in Heaven.

THE BRIGHT SIDE.—Look on the bright side. It is the right side. The times may be hard, but it will make them no easier to wear a gloomy and sad countenance. It is the sunshine, and not the cloud, that makes a flower. There is always that before or around us which should cheer and fill the heart with warmth. The sky is blue ten times where it is black once. You have troubles, it may be. So have others. None are free from them. Perhaps it is well that none should be. They give sinew and tone to life—fortitude and courage to man. That would be a dull sea, and the sailor would never get skill, where there was nothing to disturb the surface of the ocean. It is the duty of every one to extract all the happiness and enjoyment he can, without and within him; and, above all, he should look on the bright side of things. What though things do look a little dark? The lane will turn, and the night will end in broad day. In the long run, the great balance rights itself.—What is ill, becomes well—what is wrong, right. Men are not made to hang down either heads or lips, and those who do, only show that they are departing from the paths of true common sense and right. There is more virtue in one sunbeam than a whole hemisphere of clouds and gloom. Therefore, we repeat, look on the bright side of things. Cultivate what is genial—not the cold and repulsive, the dark and morose.—Anon.

THE FULLNESS OF CHRIST.—The happiness we derive from creatures is like a beggar's garment; it is made up of pieces and patches, and is worth very little, after all.—But the blessedness we derive from the Saviour is single and complete. In him all fullness dwells. He is coeval with every period. He is answerable to every condition. He is a physician to heal, a counsellor to plead, a king to govern, a friend to sympathise, a father to provide. He is a foundation to sustain, a root to enliven, a fountain to refresh. He is the shadow from the heat, the bread of life, the morning star, the sun of righteousness; all, and in all. No creature can be a substitute for him; but he can supply the place of every creature. He is all my salvation, and all my desire; my hope, my life, my glory and joy.

Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee. My flesh and my heart faileth, but thou art the strength of my heart, and my portion forever. I cannot be exposed, I cannot be friendless, I cannot be poor, I cannot be fearful, I cannot be sorrowful with thee.—Rev. William Jay.

FOLLY OF PRIDE.—Take some quiet, sober moment of life, and add together the two ideas of pride and man. Behold him, creature of a span, stalking through infinite space in all the grandeur of littleness.—Perched on a speck of the Universe, every wind of Heaven strikes into his blood the coldness of death; his soul floats from his body like melody from the string; day and night, like dust on the wheel, he is rolled along the heavens, through a labyrinth of worlds, and all the creations of God are flaming above and beneath. Is this a creature to make for himself a crown of glory, to deny his own flesh, to mock his fellow, sprung from that dust to which both will return!—Does the proud man not err? Does he not suffer? Does he not die? When he reasons is he not often stopped by difficulties? When he acts, is he never tempted by pleasures? When he lives, is he free from pain? When he dies, can he escape the common grave? Pride is not the heritage of man; humility should dwell with frailty, and atone for ignorance, error and imperfection.—Sidney Smith.

LOVE THE PRIME GRACE.—The whole duty of a Christian is nothing but love, varied throughout the several kind acts and degrees of it. And works of mercy are the most natural and genuine offspring of love; so that from these a good man is denominated. The Scriptures, therefore, frequently sum up our duty in charity; and, for that reason, style it the fulfilling of the law, and the bond of perfectness. Indeed, where charity is (that is, where the blessed fruits of charity, springing from a true principle of divine love are,) there no other Christain grace or perfection can be totally wanting; and where charity is not, there may be the imperfect resemblances of other Christian graces and virtues, but not those graces and virtues themselves; for they cannot be, unless fed and invigorated and animated by a principle of universal charity. So that our Saviour, by professing to examine us on this head, brings the matter to a short issue, a single point, by which our causes may be decided as effectually as by larger inquiries. —Bishop Atterbury.

ARGUMENTS FOR THE BIBLE.—There are four grand arguments for the truth of the Bible. The first is the miracles on record; the second the prophesies; the third the goodness of the doctrine; the fourth the moral character of the penmen. The miracles flow from Divine power: the prophecies, from Divine understanding; the excellence of the doctrine, from Divine goodness; the moral character of the penmen, from Divine purity. Thus, Christianity is built upon these four immovable pillars—the power, the understanding, the goodness, the purity of God.—The Bible must be one of these things; either an invention of good men, or good angels; or bad men or bad angels; or a revelation from God. But it could not be the invention of good men, or angels; for they neither would nor could make a book telling lies, at the same time saying, "Thus saith the Lord," when they knew it all to be their invention. It could not be the invention of wicked men, or devils, for they could not make a book which commands all duty, which forbids all sin, and which condemns their souls to all eternity. The conclusion is irresistible—the Bible must be given by Divine inspiration.—Bishop Simpson.

STRAINING AFTER POPULARITY.—The lack of piety shows itself in our day in straining after popularity. One is truly popular by the force of his talents and the fervor of his piety; another, because he seeks it as a main end. Between these there is a wide difference. One is simple and solemn; the other is magniloquent and affected. The one impresses by his thoughts; the other by his manner and words. The one attracts by the solemnity and power with which he presents and applies divine truth; the other, by his newspaper notices, his quaint subjects and texts, his odd illustrations. The one wins converts to Christ; the other, admirers of himself. The one preaches boldly the doctrines of the Cross; the other withholds or modifies them, lest they should offend; and blunts every arrow, lest it should penetrate, emulous only of the reputation of a popular preacher.

A BLOODLESS VICTORY!!!
1,000,000 BOXES SOLD OF
MOREHEAD'S
MAGNETIC PLASTER

THIS ENORMOUS QUANTITY OF this Invaluable Remedy has been purchased by citizens of the United States during the short time it has been before the public. The reason for this extraordinary success is simply in the actual truth and value of the article. No one buys the MAGNETIC PLASTER without becoming its friend. It performs all that is promised, and carries with it its own recommendation. Truly this is a Victory—peaceful and bloodless—but we believe not less glorious than the triumphs of war, with its train of carnage and desolation.

The MAGNETIC PLASTER is undoubtedly the Greatest Strengthener and Pain Destroyer that Science has yet discovered. If you put this Plaster anywhere, if Pain is there, the Plaster will stick there until the Pain has vanished. The Plaster magnetises the Pain away, and PAIN CANNOT EXIST WHERE THIS PLASTER IS APPLIED.

Rheumatism, Lameness, Stiffness, Weakness, Debility, Nervousness, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Coughs and Colds, Pains and Aches of every kind, are IMMEDIATELY RELIEVED, and, with a little patience, PERMANENTLY CURED, by the magical influence of the MAGNETIC PLASTER. It is the simplest, surest, safest, pleasantest and cheapest remedy in existence. Its application is universal—equally to the strong man, the delicate woman, and the feeble infant. Its use is agreeable, and without annoyance or trouble. Its price is within reach of all—rich or poor; all may have it, and all should have it who are sick, and suffering in any way.

FARMERS and PLANTERS should always be supplied with the MAGNETIC PLASTER. It will be the Good Physican in any household, ready at all times and at instant notice.

Put up in air-tight tin boxes. Each box will make six to eight plasters, and any child can spread them. Price, twenty-five cents per box, with full and plain directions. D. C. MOREHEAD, M. D.,

SOYER'S SULTANA SAUCE.
For Hot or Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce was invented by the renowned "SOYER," on his return from the Crimea, and since his decease is manufactured by CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. The manufacturers simply ask for it a trial, convinced that it must add to the already large consumption, and that it will prove itself unequaled, either as a stimulant to the appetite or an aid to digestion.

Opinions of the London Press

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONSIEUR SOYER's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe: its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION.—The Lancet.

"The Sultana's Sauce is savory, piquant, and spicy; a happy combination of flavors and essences worthy of the delicate taste of a Sultana, the genius of a Soyer, and the universal patronage of a discriminating Public."—Observer.

"A concentration of all the piquant resources of Turkey and Russia."—United Service Gazette.

"An a titillater of the appetite this Sauce stands alone. It is a most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh, or Fowl, and should be placed on every dinner table."—Atlas.

"The Sultana sauce is a most delicious zest."—Morn Chronicle.

DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

C.—For Catarrh, of long standing or recent, either with obstruction or profuse discharge.
W. C.—For Whooping Cough, abating its violence and shortening its course.

In all acute diseases, such as Fevers, Inflammation, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Croup, Rheumatism, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchitis and consumption, may be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance.—Often the cure of a single chronic disease, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
IMPORTERS,
No. 17 Broad Street, New York.

THIS AGREEABLE TONIC IS DESIGNED especially as a

Safe and Reliable Medicine for Family Use.

The public are assured that our LONDON DOCK GIN is a superior article, possessing all the virtues ascribed to it as a Medicinal Beverage, and deserving of their patronage, in preference to the suspicious decoctions emanating from irresponsible sources, and sold under various pretentious names.

The fact that our house (established in 1778,) has attained a favorable reputation for the genuine character and purity of its Liquors, will, we trust, be a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of this article.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one and two dozen each, with our name on the bottles, and a facsimile of our Signature on the wrappers.

SANFORD'S
Liver Invigorator,
NEVER DEBILITATES.

L I V E R I N V I G O R A T O R

IT IS COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS, and has become an established fact, a Standard Medicine, known and approved by all that have used it, and is now resorted to with confidence in all the diseases for which it is recommended.

It has cured thousands within the last two years who had given up all hopes of relief, as the numerous unsolicited certificates in my possession show.

The dose must be adapted to the temperament of the individual taking it, and used in such quantities as to act gently on the Bowels.

Let the dictates of your judgment guide you in the use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR, and it will cure LIVER COMPLAINTS, BILIOUS ATTACKS, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, SUMMER COMPLAINTS, DYSENTERY, DROPSY, SOUR STOMACH, HABITUAL COSTIVENESS, CHOLIC, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, CHOLERA INFANTUM, FLATULENCE, JAUNDICE, FEMALE WEAKNESSES, and may be used successfully as an ORDINARY FAMILY MEDICINE. It will cure SICK HEADACHE, (as thousands can testify,) IN TWENTY MINUTES, IF TWO OR THREE TEASPOONFULS ARE TAKEN at commencement of attack.

ALL WHO USE IT ARE GIVING THEIR TESTIMONY IN ITS FAVOR.

☞ MIX WATER IN THE MOUTH WITH THE INVIGORATOR, AND SWALLOW BOTH TOGETHER.

PURE VEGETABLE EXTRACTS, AND PUT UP IN GLASS CASES, AIR TIGHT, AND WILL KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE.

C A T H A R T I C P I L L S

THE FAMILY CATHARTIC PILL is a gentle but active Cathartic which the proprietor has used in his practice more than twenty years.

The constantly increasing demand from those who have long used the PILLS and the satisfaction which all express in regard to their use, has induced me to place them within the reach of all.

The Profession know that different Cathartics act on different portions of the bowels.

The FAMILY CATHARTIC PILL has, with due reference to this well established fact been compounded from a variety of the purest Vegetable Extracts, which act alike on every part of the alimentary canal, and are GOOD and SAFE in all cases where a Cathartic is needed, such as DERANGEMENTS of the STOMACH, SLEEPINESS, PAINS IN THE BACK and LIONS, COSTIVENESS, PAIN AND SORENESS OVER THE WHOLE BODY, from sudden cold, which frequently, if neglected, end in a long course of Fever, LOSS OF APPETITE, A CREEPING SENSATION OF COLD OVER THE BODY, RESTLESSNESS, HEADACHE, or WEIGHT IN THE HEAD, all INFLAMMATORY DISEASES, WORMS IN CHILDREN OR ADULTS, RHEUMATISM, a great PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD and many diseases to which flesh is heir, too numerous to mention in this advertisement. DOSE, 1 to 3.

PRICE 30 CENTS.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR AND FAMILY CATHARTIC PILLS are retailed by Druggists generally, and sold wholesale by the Trade in all the large towns. S. T. W. SANFORD, M. D.,

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY, October 28th.

Money Matters.

Nothing new to-day. There is a good deal of call for exchange, and rates are kept firm, selling on New York at 1¼. A very brisk demand for money also exists, and the banks are closely pressed to discount all the produce paper coming in, to say nothing of the accommodations looked for by other customers. The brokers are discounting good names at 1@2 per cent. a month. Gold selling at 1¼ premium.

BANK FAILURE.—By a telegram from New York, received to-day by T. P. Hall, Esq., Cashier of the State Bank of Michigan, we learn that the International Bank, of Canada, which has been in discredit since the failure of its redeeming Agents, Messrs. Jewell, Ferris & Co., is this forenoon thrown out. Large amounts of this currency are understood to have been circulated in this city.

We do not apprehend any further trouble with the Canada banks, though the circulation of the new banks will be injured by this failure.—Detroit Tribune of Thursday.

Early to-day wheat sold at yesterday's prices, but the rather unfavorable report from New York, coupled with extremely large receipts, had a depressing effect on the market, and before the meeting on 'Change prices declined 1@2 cents. During the afternoon the market was quite unsettled, and but few parties would venture to buy at any figure. The latest sales were at the following figures: Extra Spring 93c; Club 91@92c; No. 1 89c; and No. 2 87c on the track. There was a very active demand for flour to fill some heavy Eastern orders, and sales of upwards of 2,000 bbls were made at $4,25@4,62½ for fair to choice country Spring Extra; $4,75@5 for city do, and $4,75@5,12½ for good to prime country Winter. Oats were in good request, buyers taking all on the market at 31@32c in store. Barley was more eagerly sought for, No. 1 selling freely at 60c, and buyers offering 62@65c for Extra. Corn quiet.—Rye firm, with continued light receipts of both. Eggs, Potatoes, Hides, &c., unchanged. Timothy seed scarce and firm. The best would sell at $2@2,20 per bushel. Highwines declined ½c, selling at 26½c. Freights unchanged. The rates to-day were 6½c for wheat to Buffalo, and 10½c to Oswego.

CHICAGO, October 28th.—Receipts: 5,838 bbls flour, 94,637 bus wheat, 9,252 bus corn, 5,648 bus oats, 9,171 bus barley.

The Press & Tribune of this morning says:

The increased receipts of wheat to-day, as well as unfavorable news from New York and Buffalo, caused the market for Spring grades to decline 1c. At the opening several parcels of No. 2 Spring were sold at 87@87½c, but after the receipt of the New York despatches the market declined to 86@86½c—rallying under a good inquiry to 87c. In the afternoon the market was rather unsettled, sales of No. 2 ranging from 87½@88c, closing quiet. Winter wheat was firm.—About 8,000 bushels of all grades changed hands at $1 05 for No. 1 red; 95c for No. 2 red; 88½@90c for No. 1 Spring; 86@88c for No. 2 Spring, and 80@81c for rejected—all in store. There was a fair inquiry for flour, and choice brands of Spring extra were firm. Medium brands, however, were sold at a slight decline. About 2,400 bbls changed hands at $4 65 for red winter, $5 38@5 90 for white winter; $4 40@4 90 for Spring Extras, and $3 80 for Spring superfine. Oats were dull and 1@2c lower, with sales at 31½c in store. Rye in better supply and market very quiet—buyers holding off. A few lots on track were sold at 69@70c. Barley in less demand and declined ½c, with sales at 60c for No. 1 in store, and 45@50c for No. 2 in store. Seeds quiet. A few parcels of prime Timothy were sold at $2 05@2 10. Hides unchanged. Hogs are 25c lower, several lots being sold to-day at $3 50@4.

Freights dull and drooping. The rates to-day were: Wheat and corn to Ogdensburgh, 11c; wheat to Port Colborne, 5½c.

TORONTO, October 26th.—The wheat market yesterday was again still further excited, and prices took another movement upward. There was a great deal of competition, and the activity of the demand was as great as we ever before observed it. The sample, as a general thing, for the day was fair and good, and moved off very freely at from $1 20 to $1 30 for prime and extra prime, and in a few instances $1 31 and $1 32 were realized for very extra samples. For common and ordinary samples $1 10 to $1 15, and for good and fair shipping lots $1,16 to $1 18. The average price for the day was not less than $1 25 per bushel. The deliveries amounted to between 7,000 and 8,000 bushels.

Spring wheat was in active request, at better rates, $1 per bushel being realized quite frequently for good lots, and in some instances 5@8d and 5@8d per bus for farmer's loads.

Rye is still scarce, and wanted at 60c.

Barley is in better demand at higher rates—68 to 74c per bus.

Oats remain scarce, at 36c to 38c per bus, and some even demand 40c per bus.

NEW YORK HIDE MARKET, Oct. 24.—There is less activity to-day, and prices seem to be fully sustained. The sales include 1,500 Buenos Ayres, 21@21½ lbs, at 26c, 8 mos.; 1,000 do at 25½c, less 3½ ℔ cent, cash; 1,000 Rio Grande, 20½ lbs, at 25c, 7 mos., and 800 Green Salted Western, 45 lbs, at 9½c cash. The following is from Weitzel & Wiedemeyer's circular:

Both sales and receipts for the week have been to a fair extent. Our trade still operate with necessary circumspection in making purchases, whilst, on the other hand, favorable reports from Europe continue to reach these shores. However, the information from South American hide ports is not such as to induce buyers to enter our market on a liberal scale. Prices at Buenos Ayres and other La Plata ports have suddenly declined about twenty per cent. below rates current a short time ago, and it is but reasonable to suppose that a similar reduction in the cost of the article had taken place at the ports of Brazil and Venezuela. The decline seems to have been occasioned by a combination of circumstances, such as peace news from Europe, large quantities of "epidemic" hides being pushed on the market, and the withholding of orders for shipment to the United States.

MILWAUKEE DAILY MARKET.

Friday—7 P. M.

FREIGHTS—Unchanged. Engagements to-day: schrs. Jupiter and San Jacinto wheat to Buffalo at 6½c; schr. Wm. Case, wheat to Oswego at 10½c. The W. J. Whaling is loading for Buffalo on owners account.

FLOUR—Market active and not materially changed. We note sales of 2,252 bbls as follows: 200 bbls "Stone Mills" spring extra at $5,00; 67 bbls "LaCrosse" W. W. at $5,12½; 100 bbls "Genesee" do at $4,87½; 100 "Sparta" do at 4,75; 200 bbls "Steam Mills" (new city brand) Spring extra at 4,75; 54 bbls "Golden Sheaf" at 4,62½; 48 bbls "Sauk City" at $4,62½; 250 "Empire" (Beaver Dam) 100 bbls "Manchester," 100 bbls "Kekoskee," 100 bbls "Fox Lake," 100 bbls "Genoa," 50 bbls "Norway," 50 bbls "Rood's," and 63 bbls "Mendota," at $4 50; 40 bbls "Portland," 20 bbls "McClure," and 100 bbls "Clifton" at $4,40; 100 bbls "Empire" (Troy) and 150 bbls "Lowell" at $4,37½; 200 bbls of various brands in small lots at $4,25—all, with the exception of "Steam Mills" were free on board.

WHEAT—Market closes dull and unsettled at a decline of 1@2c on standard grades. MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

FRIDAY, Oct. 28.

WEATHER continues cold with, a sharp wind from the North-west.

SCHOONERS REPUBLIC AND J. P. KIRKLAND ASHORE.—The Captain of W. T. Co.'s propeller Tonawanda reports the schooner Republic, from this port, ashore on the South Manitou, and the schooner J. P. Kirkland, of Chicago, on the North Manitou. The Republic was lighting, and there was a probability of her being got off without injury. She cleared a week ago Friday, loaded with wheat for Buffalo. The Kirkland was loaded with salt for Chicago. It was feared that she would go to pieces.

ASHORE.—The schooner Ostrich, which cleared light from Chicago on Friday last to load at Waukegan, is ashore near that place.

THE HARBOR AT ST. JOSEPH.—The Press & Tribune learns that there has been a bar forming across the mouth of the river at St. Joseph, commencing at the north pier and running way across—there is but some two or three feet of water on the bar, and no vessels who are not perfectly acquainted with this new phase of things can enter the harbor. This harbor has always been noted as one of the best on the lakes.

HEAVY WEATHER.—The schooner L. J. Farwell, which reached Detroit on Wednesday evening, bound down with a load of grain from Chicago, reports having experienced very heavy weather on Lake Michigan, during which her main boom was lost, and her mainsail badly split. She stopped at Detroit to repair the damage she had sustained.

LIVES LOST.—A man belonging to the schooner Lone Star was drowned off Chicago by the capsizing of a boat, in which he and three others were attempting to go ashore in a heavy sea.

A man was lost off the schooner Ann C. Raynor on the same day, Thursday, in the Chicago river, while unhooking the boat's fall. He has not been found.

☞ The schooner W. C. Grant lost her anchor, her fore boom and gaff, and had her fore-sail torn to ribbons, in the gale of Thursday, near Chicago.

☞ The schooner Wings of the Morning bound down from this port, is reported hard aground on the flats by the Detroit papers of yesterday.

LIVELY TIMES.—The lake shipping interest is now in a flourishing condition. Everything that can spread a sail or turn a wheel is in commission, most of them engaged in moving toward the sea-board the surplus flour and grain of the West. More sail craft are in service than at any time within the past three years. The Agency in this city of the Western Transportation Company, has found it very difficult for some time past to accommodate the large amount of freight requiring to go forward.—Detroit Tribune.

VESSELS PASSING DETROIT.—The following is a list of vessels passing Detroit during the 24 hours ending Thursday noon:

UP—Brigs Commerce, Oleander; schooners Ottoca, Albatross, Palo Alto, Hazard, J S Newhouse, Maria F Johnson, Harriet Ross, Col Griswold, C H Walker, St James, West Wind, Arrow, W B Ogden, Tracy J Bronson, R B Hubbard, Lucy J Latham.

DOWN—Bark E S Adams; schooners Meridian, Wild Rover, Dardanelles, Wm Sanderson, W S Nelson, Preston, L J Farwell, Live Yankee, Bay State, D O Dickenson, Curlew, Puritan.

☞ The scow L. B. Goldsmith went ashore during the snow storm last Friday night, at Point aux Barque. The tug Reindeer has been to her assistance, but was unable to move her for the want of sufficient lines.—She is owned by J. B. Scott, of this city, and is uninsured.—Detroit Advertiser.

WOODRUFF'S PATENT SLEEPING CARS accompany all Night Trains on this route to New York and Boston.

All Trains for Summer are newly fitted with Ventilators and dusters.

Tickets can be had at all ticket offices in the West and at the Company's Office under the Revere House, corner Randolph and Dearborn streets, and at the Depot. GEO. M. GRAY, Gen'l Western Agent.

JOHN D. CAMPBELL, Gen'l Supt.

CITY OF BUFFALO, A. D. PERKIN, Comm'r, and WESTERN METROPOLIS, W. T. PEASE, Comm'r, form an Evening Line between Cleveland and Buffalo.

One of the above magnificent boats will leave the C. C. & C. Railroad Dock, Cleveland, every evening (Sundays excepted) at 8 o'clock, or on the arrival of the trains from the South and West, making sure connection at Buffalo with the morning trains on the New York Central and Buffalo, New York & Erie R. R., for Niagara Falls, Rochester, Syracuse, Rome, Utica, Albany, Corning, Elmira, Oswego, New York and Boston.

It is useless to speak elaborately of the above boats, being already well known to the travelling public as in all respects First Class, Commodious and safe.

Thus rendering a summer trip to New York or any point east of Buffalo, the most desirable of any that could be planned.

Tickets can be had at the ticket offices in the West and at the Company's office, under the Revere House, corner Randolph and Dearborn streets, and at the depot. GEO. M. GRAY, Gen. Western Agent.

NOW COMPLETED TO CHICAGO.

THIS NEW AND DIRECT ROUTE IS now open to New York, Boston, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington City, Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and all Eastern Cities; Cincinnati Columbus, Dayton, Springfield, Urbana, Zanesville, Steubenville, Newark and Wheeling, and all interior towns of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, &c., making one grand unbroken Railroad line between

CHICAGO AND THE EAST.

FARE AS LOW AS ANY OTHER ROUTE.

☞ Passengers wishing to go by this desirable and pleasant Route, should be particular and ask for tickets by Fort Wayne, avoiding the annoyance of re-checking baggage as by other routes.

Trains leave the depot on VAN BUREN ST., daily as follows:

6:15 A. M., Morning Mail and Express.
7:25 P. M., Night Express.

CHECKING BAGGAGE THROUGH

To Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York. Connecting directly with trains on the great Pennsylvania Central Railroad, to all Eastern cities. Also, with the Cleveland & Columbus R. R. to Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable, both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

Tickets for sale at all the principal ticket offices at the West, and at the Company's Office, No. 50 Dearborn St., opposite the Tremont House, Chicago, and at the Union Ticket office, No. 250 East Water St., Milwaukee.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, MILWAUKEE COUNTY COURT—IN PROBATE. In the matter of the Estate of John Sabel deceased, it appearing to the satisfaction of this Court, by the Petition of Francis Holzinger, the Administrator of the Estate of John Sabel deceased, that there is not sufficient personal Estate in the hands of the said Administrator to pay the debts outstanding against the said deceased, and the expenses of administration, and it is necessary to sell all the Real Estate of the said deceased, for the payment of such debts. It is therefore ordered, that all persons interested in the said Estate appear before the undersigned, Judge of the County Court for said County, at his office in the City of Milwaukee, on the 15th day of November, 1859, at 10 o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any they have, why license should not be granted to said Administrator to sell so much of the Real Estate of the said deceased as may be necessary to pay such debts. And it is further ordered, that a copy of the above order be published in the SENTINEL, a newspaper printed in said City, for at least four successive weeks previous to the day of hearing the said application.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM

EVER

Worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE IT IS THE ORNAMENT GOD Himself provided for our race. Readers, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled or shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than one half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

DR. WOOD:— New York, April 19, 1858.

Dear Sir—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.

"Drych a'r Gwyliedydd."
Welsh Newspaper office, 13 Nassau st.,
April 12, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

New York, July 25, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It has also relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely.

J. G. KILBY.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up, grow out, and turn back to its former color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all.

Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1857. J. D. HOES.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, forty per cent more in proportion and retails for $3,00 a bottle.
